West Faisler, Vt., Jan. 11, 1871.

Dear Sir.—For seven or eight years past I have been in poor health, and for the past year or more very feeble. My health continued to decline, and my flesh and strength wasted away until I was unable to work or even go up stairs without great exhaustion. I suffered from frequent and distressing attacks of palpitation of the heart: my food distressed me, causing acidity and pain in the stomach, and I suffered from extreme nervousness, constipation and debility of the system generally, my blood being thin and poor, and sluggish in circulation, and I was for years suffering all the toriures of a confined dyspeptic. About six months since I concluded I would try a bottle Peruvan Syrup, and received so much benefit from it that I purchased five bottles more, and have continued the use of the Syrup numl quite recently. It has restored my health to such an extent that I feel myself as good as new. My digestion is good, and my weight has increased in the past four months from 120 to 133 pounds, my strength has returned, and my general health is wonderfully improved, and I can truly say I owe it all to the use of your Peruvian Syrup. I carnestly recommend all sufferers from dyspepsis and debility to give it a trial, hoping it will do them as much good as it has me.

Your very truly.

PERUVIAN SYRUP:

From a Merchant.

Nober Sharemont, Me., Sept. 9, 1870.

Dear Sir.—It gives me very great pleasure to inform you of the benefit received from the use of Peruvian Syrup in my own family. My wife, forthe past ten years, has been in fasble health—very much debilitated generally. Last Spring she concluded to try a bottle of Peruvian Syrup, and was so well pleased with the result that she continued its use until three or four bottles had been used, and she is now in better health than at any time for ten years, and has increased in weight faom 110 to 126% pounds. I have employed physicians, and the extent of hundreds or dollars, and I k she received more benefit from the Peruvian Syrup than all the rest together.

My sales on the Syrup are very large and constantly increasing, and I do not hesitate to recommend and even warrant at to give satisfaction. If you desire, you are at hiberty to use this communication as you see fit, as it gives me pleasure to recommend so good an article to suffering humanity. Yours truly.

Restored to Complete Health.

BROOKS, ME., Sept. 7, 1870.

Dear Sir.—From early youth I was in feeble health, troubled with humor in my blood, weakness and debility of the system generally; was unable to labor much, and only at some light business, and then only with great caution.

Seven years ago the past Spring I had a severe attack of diphtheria, which left my limbs paralyzed and useless, as I was unable to walk or even to sit up. Noticing the advertisement of Peruvian Syrup, I concluded to give it a trial, and to my great joy soon found my health improving. I continued the use of the Syrup until three bottles had been used, and was respected to compate health, and have remained. stored to complete health, and have remained so until this day.

so until this day.

I attribute my present health entirely to the use of Peruvian Syrup, and hold it in high estimation. I connot speak too highly in its prause. I have in several cases recommended it in cases very similiar to my own with the same good results.
